Take It All Blinded By

Take It All was Emma Grayson baring her soul for the world. It was uncomfortably personal and terrifyingly real. I wanted to stop, put it down, bury my head in the sand and make up all kinds of happy endings for Lennox and Caleb.

Take It All was a hard read for me. It was difficult to watch Lennox take hit after hit when it came to Caleb and his addiction, and even though Emma writes in a way that clearly shows how Lennox is feeling throughout all of the drama and why she makes the choices that she does, I still didn't understand it.
